

Governor Biography – Clare Bristow

I joined the governing body in summer 2022. I have two children who attend Syresham and I am delighted to be part of such a supportive and welcoming school community.

I work as a primary school teacher and hope to use my experience in education to contribute to this wonderful school. I am passionate about education and ensuring that all children reach their full potential.